We use this data in order to be able to contact the appropriate contact person, to process your requests and orders appropriately and to maintain our business relationship. The legal basis is Art. 6 para. 1 lit. b GDPR.
- b. Orders, order management and invoicing. In the context of order processing and billing, we collect information on offers, orders and invoice items as well as information on bank details. Contact data of contact persons can also be processed in this context. The legal basis is Art. 6 para. 1 lit. b GDPR.
- c. (Product) liability and warranty. We process your data for the assertion of legal claims and defence in legal disputes. In order to check legal and contractual claims, we may need information on the products covered by the contract, their installation and use as well as information on invoices. In addition to your company and contact data, information about end customers that is contained in the submitted invoice and order documentation may also be processed as part of the claim verification process. The legal basis is Art. 6 para. 1 lit. b GDPR.

We will send them to you by post or e-mail. To contact you by e-mail, we will use the contact data you have provided us with. You can object to the use of your data for advertising purposes at any time by notifying us of the contact data specified under item 1 (e.g. by e-mail or letter). 4. Consignees. The contact data generally will be processed exclusively by Eberspächer and will not be passed on to third parties. In certain cases, data is passed on within the Eberspächer group of companies. This is the case if a Group company provides certain services for us or if joint Framework agreements exist. Furthermore, data is passed on in those cases in which the legislator requires it or makes it mandatory (e.g. as part of a tax audit by the tax authorities or as part of money laundering prevention). In certain cases, the disclosure of your data to third parties is necessary in order to protect your or our interests or to fulfil our contractual obligations. Such a transfer takes place in particular if we integrate external service providers into our internal processes. In such cases, the service provider is bound by instructions and receives data only to the extent and for the period necessary for the provision of the services in each case. We also employ external consultants and auditors in some cases. Agreements have always been concluded with these parties to ensure the confidentiality of all information.
5. Storage time
The data is stored for as long as it is needed for the described purpose, but at least as long as claims from the business relationship could exist and a safekeeping is necessary to fulfil the legal accounting obligations.

6. Data integrity

We have implemented appropriate security measures to protect your personal data from accidental loss, unauthorized use, alteration or disclosure or unauthorized access. In addition, we restrict access to your data to employees who need it for the purpose of information.
